

BIO 340 : Ecology

Ecology is an introduction to the relationships between biota and their environment with emphasis on limiting factors, competition, coevolution, energy flow, and population dynamics. The course includes lecture and laboratory components, and one Saturday field trip will be required.

Credits 4

Prerequisites

BIO 112

CHM 110

MTH 110