

BUS 480 : Business Strategy

Examination of the problems involved in the formulation and execution of business policies and maintenance and development of an effective organization. Includes the use of case studies as a basis for discussion.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

Declared major in final spring semester.