

COR 100 : Year One

An introduction to college life. Students will further develop the personal and academic skills necessary for success in college. A service project is central to the course.

Credits 1