

EXS 205 : Nutrition Concepts for Exercise Science

An introductory course in contemporary nutrition issues that focuses on the fundamentals of nutrition that affect human function and well-being, covering basic physiology, nutrients and dietary standards and analysis.

Credits 3