

HIS 318 : U.S. and the World II

This course investigates the history of the United States' interactions with the globe after World War I, including with Europe, Africa, Asia, and the Middle East. It will introduce students to important events, people, and the historiography of the subject.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

HSI 102 or permission of instructor