

HAM 310 : Healthcare Service Operations

This course is an introduction to healthcare operations. Students will learn about operations and systems management within the context of healthcare systems, how hospital supply chains work, and how to analyze operational processes to improve efficiencies. By the end of this course, students will know how to evaluate and optimize hospital processes.

Credits 3

Corequisites

HAM 100

BUS 323