

CSC 255: Computer Architecture

Introduction to computer organization and the basic structure of a modern programmable computer. Topics covered include the von Neumann architecture, the CPU, pipelining, memory hierarchy, assembly/ machine language, and the basic laws underlying performance evaluation.

Credits: Credits 3.00

Prerequisites: CSC 240 and CSC 245

Program: Computer Science